YARD TO LAUNCH FIFTH ORE CARRIER -- Rzecpospolita, No 157, 10 Jun 49

The Ministry of Navigation has approved the name SS Patrowski for the fifth ore and coal carrier in the Gdansk shipyard undergoing final repairs. The carrier will be launched the latter part of June during the Sea Holiday (Swieto Morza) celebration.

TRAFFIC ON THE WISLA -- Rzecpospolita, No 178, 1 Jul 49

In the first 3 months of operations, the vessels of the State Navigation Administration on the Wisla carried 4,214 passengers in the direction of Sandomierz and 14,201 passengers in the direction of Gdansk.

During the same period, total miscellaneous freight carried in both directions was 188 tons.

NEW TRAINING SHIP CHRISTENED -- Rzecpospolita, No 178, 1 Jul 49

During the observance of the Sea Holiday, a new training ship, the Zew Morza, was christened in Gdynia. This ship was rebuilt from a derelict by the Northern Shipyards in Gdansk and the Fishermens Shipyards in Gdynia.

The ceremony was attended by the Minister of Navigation Adam Rapacki, Vice-Minister Feliks Widz-Wirski, and Director Kazimierz Petrusewicz.

The sponsors for the christening were Maria Postuszynska, wife of one of the workers in the Fishermens Shipyards, and Kazimierz Petrusewicz.

NEW BRIDGE OPENS TO TRAFFIC -- Rzeczpospolita, No 177, 30 Jun 49

A newly built vehicular bridge spanning the Wisla at Pulawy was opened to traffic.

The new bridge will facilitate transportation in that sector of the Wisla River between Deblin and Annopol, and will lessen the transportation problems in the adjoining areas of Lublin and Kielce vojewodztwos.
